

Privacy statement from ATS groep

ATS groep has drawn up this privacy statement to show that we take your privacy very seriously. The following explains how personal information is handled. All data collected by us will be kept strictly confidential and will not be lent, rented or sold, nor be made public in any way. The information you provide to ATS groep will be treated with the utmost care.